Microsoft 365 - All The Things You Need to Know	Randy Johnston	06/19/2022	12:00 pm – 1:40 pm	Microsoft 365/Office 365 continues to grow and evolve, yet most utilize only a fraction of the tools available in their subscription. For example, powerful resources such as SharePoint Online and Skype for Business can change how your entire organization communicates and collaborates. In contrast, more personal apps such as Teams, Planner, Flow, and Sway allow individuals to work more efficiently and effectively in virtually all facets of their jobs. Further, security enhancements to Office 365 mean that your organization can take advantage of all these features in a highly secure environment. Isn't it time you learned how to move beyond the traditional Microsoft 365/Office 365 applications such as Excel, Word, and Outlook and unleash all your subscription offers? Join us in this fast-paced and highly interactive seminar where you will learn what you need to know to be truly successful with Microsoft 365/Office 365.	Length (in minutes): 100 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Computer Software & Application CPE Hours: 2 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0

Time's UP!: The Subscription Business Model for Accounting Firms	Ron Baker	06/19/2022	12:00 pm – 1:40 pm	The world is moving from products and services to subscriptions, favoring access and transformations over ownership and deliverables. The advantages to a subscription model are many, including: Predictable revenue; not selling services, but creating annuities with a lifetime value that far exceeds whatever you paid to acquire them; collective knowledge of your customers, which is a competitive advantage that cannot be duplicated; the customer relationship is at the center of the firm; not pricing a product or service, but rather a series of customer transformations, peace of mind, and convenience; and it is easier to predict demand and plan capacity more effectively. Take a Day Off Weekly to Thrive	Lamont Nesbitt	06/19/2022	12:00 pm – 1:40 pm	How many hours did you work this week? Know anyone who went on vacation last week? Does that thought make you jealous or envious? Have you ever gone on vacation...and worked while you were on it? YOU are the key, without you most of your businesses do not exist, let alone run, or ever become efficient. What are you doing for YOU to improve your business? My suggestion is to take a day off, every week. When you are done telling yourself it can't be done, let me. How often do you charge your cell phone? Now tell me how useful, efficient or productive your phone is if you don't charge it for 3 days? Come realize how important you are! Dare to set aside a day off to NOT WORK...at all. Not only should you do it, I believe it is a vital key to unlocking your mind to achieve like you never have before. The version of you where you THRIVE is on the other side of some regular, scheduled, and intentional rest. Let's talk and discover some of the benefits together.	Length (in minutes): 100 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Personal Development CPE Hours: 2 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0

What Is Your Money Mindset? How Your Mindset Affects Your Practice's Bottom Line	Shonette Sullivan	06/19/2022	2:00 pm – 3:40 pm	This session discusses how business owners feel or think about money and how it affects their bottom line. Many are not aware that their income will only grow as large as your mindset will allow. Many accountants and bookkeepers focus so heavily on increasing their clients' bottom line and often neglect their own. Many find themselves giving more value than is received. Success and wealth is achieved only through win-win situations. That is, a financial win for the client as well as a financial win for themselves. Advanced Bookkeeping: AR Analytics	Brian Suthoff	06/19/2022	2:00 pm – 3:40 pm	Accounts receivable is one of the largest assets and largest source of risk for many small and midsize businesses. However, many businesses still rely on simple aging statements and misunderstood days sales outstanding (DSO) metrics to measure, track and prioritize their efforts. In this session we'll review the issues and improvements to traditional DSO, we'll review other metrics you can use with clients. We'll also explore ways to improve accounts receivable performance to boost cash flow and lower risk.	Length (in minutes): 100 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Business Management & Organization CPE Hours: 2 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0
Commitments and Boundaries – Your YES Should Mean Something!	Kathy Grosskurth	06/19/2022	2:00 pm – 3:40 pm	Many years ago, my life was defined by a distinct pattern of making empty promises and disappointing those around me. Though I paid lip service to being sorry, I didn't really accept total responsibility. Therefore, these behaviors continued with the same results. My situation was hopeless... Until something happened that LITERALLY changed my life and way of thinking. My "A-HA!!!" moment occurred after reading a book on setting and keeping boundaries. After many years of embracing and implementing its principles, the hard work has helped me tremendously in protecting my internal and external boundaries so that my "YES" means YES and my "NO" means NO. Even though I still consider myself a work-in-progress, I am thankful that I CAN set appropriate boundaries in my life. And if I can do it, then you can, too!	Length (in minutes): 100 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Personal Development CPE Hours: 2 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0

PROP It Up! PROP Accounting Software: Bridging the Gap for Small Business	Ted McCrae	06/20/2022	7:45 am – 8:45 am	There is a new sector of the accounting software market that has been developing in recent years. These new applications are designed to handle the Process and Resource Operation Planning (PROP) for a business. This gap between entry-level solutions and ERP solutions is being filled by PROP products, which are specifically designed to meet the needs of small businesses. This session will discuss what PROP accounting software is and how it can benefit you & your clients' business! Small companies have a lot of moving components. Small company owners don't want to be experts in accounting, logistics, or other fields. For most small business owners, ERP solutions are too big and expensive. Many of them, on the other hand, quickly outgrow the basic accounting modules such as just a general ledger, reporting, accounts payable. This is where the Process and Resource Operation Planning (PROP) solutions come in for a business. These PROP products bridge the gap for small businesses between entry-level solutions and ERP solutions.	Length (in minutes): 60 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Computer Software & Application CPE Hours: 1 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0

Try Before You Buy - Test Drive New Clients via Profitable Clean-up Jobs, Using the Client Experience 2.0 Method	Michelle Vilms	06/20/2022	1:20 pm – 3:00 pm	It's disconcerting to take on a new client and realize they are simply a bad fit. One of the best ways to ensure this doesn't happen is to "test drive" your prospective new clients! Client clean-up projects can be a wonderful way to not only get paid for your work and provide a much-needed service but also to allow you to gain valuable insights into how the client works. There is also a huge demand for this service, as small business owners need your help in getting their books accurate so they can file their taxes and manage their businesses properly. They may have been "going it alone" to save money and now they can't trust their balances. Or they may be a referral from a CPA firm who asks you to clean up and verify the balances so they can proceed with the tax return. Either way, you need a process to manage this work that results in a great experience for your staff, and for the client. You'll also benefit from a new way of looking at these projects - they can not only be profitable and enjoyable, they can also be a source of long-term clients as well. The biggest benefit of approaching client cleanup projects this way is that you will gain clients with clean books, and also know that they are not only easy to work with but they value your expertise and are willing to pay for it as well.	Length (in minutes): 100 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Business Management & Organization CPE Hours: 2 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0

Innovation Beyond Technology	Ed Kless	06/21/2022	7:45 am – 8:45 am	This session is dedicated to the possibility that innovation goes beyond just technological developments. Technology is important, but it is only a small part of innovation. For innovation to be more fully complete we must look at other areas including the internal processes of the organization and most importantly the very language we use. Innovating like this is hard work and not for everyone because it requires deeper thinking than is most often thought. If you believe you can attain this level of thinking, you are invited to attend this session facilitated by Ed Kless, Sage senior director of partner development and strategy. 2022's Biggest Security and Privacy Concerns	Brian Tankersley	06/22/2022	1:30 pm – 3:10 pm	Technology is a business-critical business capability in today's day and age. Any interruption to an organization's ability to use its information system poses a significant risk to its viability. Data breaches, cyber-attacks, and ransomware are examples of the most significant existential risks facing businesses today. There are threat actors worldwide that entirely focus on stealing organizational data, stealing economic resources, and disrupting commerce. They use complex social engineering attacks, pervasive phishing messages, intricate malware, and other highly effective techniques. For example, publicly reported data breaches now exceed 100k annually. These breaches resulted in releasing the personal information of millions of people worldwide, billions of dollars of compromised organizational assets, and putting countless people in harm's way. This course covers recent major security breaches, including Solarwinds, Ubiquity, Colonial Pipeline, Tecnimont SpA, Citrix, and LabCorp. It will discuss how these breaches occurred, why they occurred, and how organizations can prevent similar incidents from impacting them. Each case study examines a different form of security vulnerability and how to avoid it. The topics will include social engineering, auditing processes for IT Security systems, forensic accounting, password, two-factor authentication, and improvements for managerial oversight. Participants will gain real-world knowledge from the mistakes of other organizations and, from that experience, develop their own security best practices for their organizations.	Length (in minutes): 100 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Information Technology CPE Hours: 2 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0

Cash vs Accrual Basis Accounting in QB Desktop and QBO – Recognizing the Differences and Idiosyncrasies	Joe Aliota	06/22/2022	4:10 pm – 5:50 pm	Both QuickBooks Desktop (QBDT) and QBO include the ability to generate reports on either cash or accrual basis. While cash basis reports essentially eliminate accounts receivable and payable from those reports in both QBDT and QBO, there are circumstances when this is not the case. Additionally, there are considerable differences between the how each software handles the elimination. Let's explore those differences and how some transactions aren't eliminated, and how some reports don't include transactions that one might expect would be included. Supercharge Your Firm's 1040 Data Gathering and Utilization Processes	Rob Smith	06/22/2022	4:10 pm – 5:50 pm	For tax pros it's all about efficiency. You've got great tax software in place to help get those tax returns done. You've notified clients of your deadlines. But then clients drag their heels sending their documents in, and when you do get them, it is time-consuming to organize and summarize what they've sent you. Did clients send everything you asked for? What's missing? It's vital you have a crystal-clear process that ensures you get the right documents from clients, that they are sent securely and on a timely basis, and that you can easily summarize and annotate them so your tax staff can input them efficiently. Rob Smith will share best practices to create a process that ensures that once each client's 1040 document set is sent to the tax team, it's complete, accurate, and leads to total efficiency. The software he will use to demonstrate this process is Microsoft 365 (Teams, SharePoint and OneNote) and he will touch on using Liscio to ensure you get clients to send their documents on time. If your firm uses inexperienced or seasonal tax staff, or you simply want to learn new ways to gather, track, and layout your tax documents efficiently, this course is for you.	Length (in minutes): 100 Level (Basic, Intermediate, Advanced): Basic Prerequisites: None CPE Field of Study: Computer Software & Application CPE Hours: 2 EA/AFSP CE Hours: 0

Challenging Our Thinking: Breaking Through to New Levels of Learning and Implementation	Ingrid Edstrom	06/22/2022	4:10 pm – 5:50 pm	This is an amazing opportunity to discuss and apply the ideas you have been picking up this week at Scaling New Heights. Some of these ideas may be new and even intimidating, and we want to make sure that you have the tools to move forward in applying them in your practice. Join several SNH instructors for an interactive, discussion-based brainstorming session focusing on the changes in our industry. Together we will challenge our assumptions, ask the deep questions that lead to more questions, and create new learning opportunities based upon the experience of all participants. This will be a supportive facilitated discussion where all ideas are welcome. There will be time at the end for everyone to come back together, and the facilitators will report on the key breakthroughs of each group for the benefit of all.
